

INTERNSHIP OFFER LETTER

To:
Shravani Mahadik,

July 13, 2026

We are delighted to offer you the position of AI/ML Engineer at AIMLCore. Your background and enthusiasm align well with our company's vision. We believe you will contribute meaningfully to our artificial intelligence initiatives and ongoing growth.

Position Details

- Job Title: AI/ML Engineer
- Department: AI & Machine Learning
- Start Date: July 13, 2026
- Work Arrangement: Work from Home

In this role, you will assist in AI model development, data pipeline construction, and algorithm optimisation. Your contribution will support both strategic planning and day-to-day engineering operations. We believe your creativity and strategic approach will make a significant contribution to the growth and success of our organisation.

Additionally, if you demonstrate exceptional performance during the two-month internship, we would be delighted to offer you a full-time position in the same role. As your acceptance is already confirmed with the signed agreement, we consider this letter a formal record of your offer. We are eager to officially begin our work together. We look forward to having you as part of our team and growing together in the future.

Sincerely,

AIMLCore Team
